The Nativity: the Love of Limitation

The major feast we celebrate in December is the Nativity of our Lord on December 25th. There is joy in the air that seems to begin as early as the end of October nowadays. And there is a good reason for this: God has become man and has initiated a new intimacy and unity with human beings. Many cities and towns are decorated with Christmas trees and cute manger scenes. There is a special charm in seeing the “bambino” Christ (the cute baby) in the manger. The irresistible charm of the season seems to be located in the crazy premise that the infinite, all-powerful God has become small and limited for us.

Why is this so appealing? All societies seem to understand that there is a value and beauty in being vulnerable that simply evaporates when there is no vulnerability and limitations. In the end, an all-powerful hero is an impossibility and a contradiction in terms. A game with no rules (no limitations) is a boring game. When taken to its logical conclusion, this insight really leads straight to the beauty of ultimate vulnerability, which is the Cross of Christ. For this reason, the feast of Christmas goes way beyond the charming manger scenes and is ultimately a prophecy of the Cross and resurrection. In a mysterious sense, all cultures - both ancient and modern - in their instinctive acknowledgement of the irresistible beauty of the weak and limited who, despite their limitation and weakness, stand up for what is right - intuitively predict the Cross of Christ.

This was a clear premonition in ancient Greek literature. In the Odyssey, the Greek goddess Calypso fell in love with Odysseus and offered him immortality if he would only marry her. In the end, he preferred to return to his mortal wife Penelope and continue to live as a vulnerable human being rather than adopt the untroubled life of an immortal god. He preferred the human mortal life with all its vulnerability, tribulation and its certainty of death. What could possibly justify this decision?

If he had stayed with Calypso, the Odyssey would have come to an abrupt end. He would no longer have the opportunity to demonstrate the virtues and achievements that made this story worthwhile, those traits which are characteristically human. He would no longer have the opportunity to fall in love. This intuition is clear in Greek mythology because whenever the gods fall in love, it is only with mortal humans! Part of the irresistible beauty of human excellence is its vulnerability. Despite all our attempts... to avoid this, THIS is what constitutes human excellence and beauty! The good news of the Gospel is that - beyond all sorts of ancient and modern mythologies that intuitively point to this in different ways - in actual fact the true God of the Trinity has really fallen in love with human beings in our limitation and vulnerability, and has adopted this reality for Himself in the Incarnation so He can be on a common playing field with us, his beloved. This is really what Christmas is all about.

The central values of love, courage, heroism, generosity and friendship entail sacrifice and an unlimited being who has everything and is in everything by definition cannot sacrifice anything! Very simply, the self-sacrificial concepts of love and heroism work only in a context subject to risks, needs, vulnerability and limitation. If Odysseus’ preference of Penelope to Calypso impresses us, how much more should the incarnation of Christ, which is God’s abandonment of the “comfort zone” of unlimitedness totally astound us? If the example of the heroism in an imperfect hero like Odysseus who preferred human limitation means anything, then intuitively this heroism and love taken to the ultimate degree leads to the taking on of ultimate limitation which is the suffering and death of the Cross. In order for God to be the ultimate hero and savior worthy of worship he cannot but be a God who also knows limitation and vulnerability to the ultimate degree. This is precisely the archetype of the Cross: the worst suffering and limitation for the best and most unlimited man. We can’t go any further than this. This is why not only Christmas, but every moment of Christ’s life, finds its ultimate meaning in the Cross and is colored by this reality. But the Cross, as the ultimate heroism and ultimate love, cannot but be the ultimate sign of life. The Cross IS at the same time the Resurrection, and this is why we say that Christ conquered death BY death!

This is very clear in the hymnology and iconography of the Nativity. Our Orthodox icons never depict one isolated historical moment, they never show just one slice of history, rather, they always tell the whole story in one picture. In the Christmas icon, then, we see that the shadow of the Cross and the joy of the resurrection are already evident. In this icon the halo of Christ always has a cross inscribed into it, he lies in a manger that looks more like a coffin, and he is wrapped up like a mummy. At the same time, the three magi coming from the East in this icon are seen already as a prediction of the three-day burial that led to the joy of the resurrection and the Second Coming which we believe will come from the East.
The appropriation of life and death in the world by God Himself, then, is the only loving affirmation of the value of the human situation. All of Christ’s life, from the Nativity, to the Cross to the Resurrection, shows us who God is while at the same time affirming what it means to be truly human. He showed us the way to be a true human being not through being powerful but through weakness, just as Odysseus and others showed us that heroism and love can’t exist in the untroubled life of a god who knows no limitation. The key conviction of the Nativity behind all the cute manger scenes is the fact that only through daily death witnessing to Christ can we Christians attain the full stature of a true human being: “to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ” (Eph. 4:13)

This Christmas and throughout our life may we follow the example of the unlimited God who took on limitations for us so we can become truly human as He did.

Merry Christmas!

Χριστουγεννιάτικο Μήνυμα π. Φιλίππου:

Τὰ Χριστούγεννα: ἡ Ἀγάπη τοῦ Περιορισμοῦ

Ἡ σημαντικότερη γιορτή τοῦ Δεκέμβριο εἶναι ἡ Γέννηση τοῦ Χριστοῦ στὶς 25 Δεκεμβρίου. Ὑπάρχει χαρά στὴν ἀτμόσφαιρα ποὺ φαίνεται νὰ ξεκινᾶ στὶς ἡμέρες μας από τὸ τέλος Ὀκτωβρίου. Πολλὲς πόλεις καὶ χωριὰ εἶναι στολισμένα μὲ χριστουγεννιάτικα δέντρα καὶ χαριτωμένες φάτνες. Η ἀκατανίκητη χάρη τῆς Χριστουγεννιάτικης ἐποχῆς φαίνεται νὰ ἐντοπίζεται στὴν τρελὰ ἀγαπητικὴ πρόταση ὅτι ὁ αἰώνιος, ἀπεριόριστος, παντοδύναμος Θεὸς ἔγινε γιὰ μᾶς μικρός, θνητός, ἀδύναμος καὶ πεπερασμένος.

Γιατὶ εἶναι τόσο ἐλκυστικὴ αὐτὴ ἡ φαινομενικὰ παράλογη πρόταση; Φαίνεται ὅτι ὅλες οἱ κοινωνίες εἶχαν μία αἴσθηση ὅτι ὑπάρχει μία αξία, χάρη καὶ ὀμορφιὰ στὴν τρωτότητα τοῦ ἀνθρώπου, ἡ ὁποία ἐξαφανίζεται όταν δὲν ὑπάρχουν τέτοιοι περιορισμοὶ καὶ τέτοια τρωτότητα. Τελικά, ένας παντοδύναμος ήρωας εἶναι μία ἀντίφασις ἡ δεν με τὴν τρωτότητα. Παρομοίως, ένα παιχνίδι χωρὶς κανονισμοὺς (περιορισμοὺς) δὲν προσφέρει καμία πρόκληση καὶ καταντᾶ βαρετό. Η πραγματικότητα αὐτή, σὲ τελικὴ ἀνάλυση, ὁδηγεῖ λογικὰ στὴν τέλεια τρωτότητα, ποὺ βρίσκεται στὸν Σταυρὸ τοῦ Χριστοῦ. Γι’αὐτὸν τὸν λόγο, ἡ γιορτὴ τῶν Χριστουγέννων, ἡ ἀνάληψη δηλαδὴ τοῦ περιορισμοῦ ἐκ μέρους τοῦ Θεοῦ, πάει πολὺ πιὸ πέρα ἀπὸ τὶς χαριτωμένες φάτνες καὶ τῆς Ἀναστάσεως. Μὲ ἕνα τρόπο περίεργο ὅλες οἱ κουλτούρες -ἀρχαῖες καὶ μοντέρνες- μὲ τὴν ἐνστινκτώδη ἀναγνώριση τῆς ἀκατανίκητης ὀμορφιᾶς τοῦ εὐάλωτου προσώπου ποὺ, παρ’ὅλη τὴν ἀδυναμία καὶ τὸν περιορισμὸ του, ἐπιμένει στὸ σωστό, τὸ δίκαιο, καὶ τὸ ὀμορφο, παραπέμπουν στὸν Σταυρὸ χωρὶς νὰ τὸ ξέρουν.

Αὐτὴ ἡ ἰδέα εἶχε ἤδη διατυπωθεῖ μὲ σαφήνεια στὴν ἀρχαία Ἑλληνικὴ λογοτεχνία. Ἡ θεὰ Καλυψὼ ἐρωτεύθηκε τὸν Ὀδυσσέα καὶ θὰ τοῦ προσέφερε τὴν ἀθανασία ὡς ἀντάλλαγμα ἂν θὰ τὴν παντρεύτηκε. Τελικά ὁ Ὀδυσσέας προτίμησε νὰ ἐπιστρέψει στὴν θνητὴ γυναίκα του, τὴν Πηνελόπη καὶ νὰ συνεχίσει τὴν ζωὴ του ως εὐάλωτος, θνητός ἀνθρώπως ἄντι νὰ υἱοθετήσει τὴν ἀτάρα ζωὴν ἐνὸς αἰωνίου θεοῦ. Προτίμησε δηλαδὴ τὴν ἀνθρώπινη, θνητὴ ζωὴ μὲ όλη τὴν τρωτότητα, τὴν ταλαιπωρία καὶ τὸν ἐγγυημένο ἀνθρώπῳ ποὺ περιέχει. Τι θὰ μποροῦσε νὰ δικαιολογήσει μία τέτοια ἀπόφασις; ποι ἐξαιρετικὲς του στιγμές. Δὲν θα έχει τὴν δυνατότητα να ἔρωτευθεί. Αὐτὸς ο οίωνος εἶναι σαφῆς στὴν Ελληνική μυθολογία ἁφοῦ ὅποτε ἔρωτευτόναι οἱ θεοὶ εἶναι μόνον μὲ τοὺς θυντὸς ἀνθρώπους! Μέρος τῆς ἀκατανίκητης ἀμορφίας τῆς ἀνθρώπων ἀριστείας εἶναι ἡ τριώτητά της. Παρ’όλος τις ἀπότειχες νὰ τὴν ἀποφύγουμε, αὐτὴ ἀκρίβως εἶναι ἡ ὑστάσις τῆς ἀνθρώπων ἀριστείας καὶ ὀμορφίας! Τά καλά νέα του Εὐαγγέλιου εἶναι ὅτι - πέρα ἀπὸ τις ποικίλες ἀρχαίες καὶ μοντέρνες μυθολογίες ποὺ θέλουν νὰ διατυπώσουν αὐτὴν τὴν ἱδέα μὲ διαφορετικοὺς τρόπους - στὴν πραγματικότητα ὁ ἀληθινός Θεὸς μᾶς ἔχει ἔρωτευθεί μὲ ὅλον τὸν περιορισμό καὶ τὴν τριώτητα ποὺ μᾶς χαρακτηρίζει, καὶ ὁ ἱδίος τὴν ἔκανε πράξει: ὁ Θεὸς ἔχει ἐνδυθεῖ αὐτὴν τὴν κατάσταση καὶ ἐμπειρία μὲ τὴν Ἐνσάρκωση του νὰ βρίσκεται στὸ ἱδίο ἐπίπεδο μὲ μᾶς, ποὺ εἴμαστε τὸ ἀντικείμενο τῆς ἀγάπης Του. Αὐτὸ εἶναι τὸ ἀληθινὸ θαύμα τῶν Χριστούγεννων.

Ἀν ο Ὀδυσσέας ἔμενε μὲ τὴν Καλυψὼ ἡ περιπέτεια τῆς Ὀδύσσειας θὰ τελείωνε ἀμέσως. Δὲν θὰ εἶχε πιὰ τὴν εὐκαιρία ὁ Ὀδυσσέας νὰ δείξει τὶς ἀρετὲς καὶ τὰ εὐγενὲς κατορθώματα ποὺ χαρακτηρίζουν τὸν ἀνθρώπο.

Οἱ κεντρικὲς ἤρωικὲς άξεσης τῆς ἀγάπης, τῆς γενναιότητας, τῆς γενναιοδωρίας καὶ τῆς φιλίας προϋποθέτουν θυσία. Ἐνσάρκωση τοῦ Χριστοῦ περιορισμό. Ἁν ἡ προτίμηση τοῦ Ὀδυσσέα γιὰ τὴν ὑπόκεινται σὲ ρίσκο, ἀνάγκη, τρωτότητα καὶ σταματήσει νὰ εἰναι αὐτὸ ποὺ εἴναι! Πολὺ ἁπλά, κατέχει τὰ πάντα καὶ ποὺ εἶναι μέσα στὰ πάντα ἐξ ἀναγνώσιας τῆς γενναιοδωρίας καὶ τῆς φιλίας. Οἱ κεντρικὲς ἡρωικὲς ἀξίες τῆς ἀγάπης, τῆς Ἰσωτοσῦνης, τῆς ἀνατολῆς. Η ἀνάληψη τῆς γήινης, ἀνθρώπινης ζωῆς καὶ ἀνατολή. Η ἀνάληψη τῆς γήινης, ἀνθρώπινης ζωῆς καὶ ἀνατολῆς. Η ἀνάληψη τῆς γήινης, ἀνθρώπινης ζωῆς καὶ ἀνατολῆς. Merry Christmas from Philoptochos!

Wishing Everyone the Joy & Blessings of the Season!

Our Pastry & Frozen Trays fundraiser was a success in November. Thank you to our volunteers and our community who support us.

Christmas Bread is being baked and distributed in December. We’re keeping the kitchen busy!

Our Christmas luncheon will take place on Saturday December 4th at Tumblesalts Café & Restaurant in North Providence. Members and guests are welcome.

We hope to plan a chicken dinner in the near future. We are working hard to increase our treasury to meet our obligations to our parish and community.

We welcome anyone who might be interested to attend a monthly meeting. Our meetings have been fewer due to Covid restrictions. In the next few months, hopefully we will be back to a regular schedule.

Philoptochos will continue to make koliva for memorial services when requested. The price of all ingredients has increased, and some are more difficult to find. Beginning on January 1, 2022, the price will increase to $150 per tray.

We wish everyone a Happy and Healthy Christmas as we head into the New Year!!

Let Us Help Our Endowment Fund Grow

As church membership dwindles in many places while ever-growing maintenance fees rise, many parishes are establishing endowment funds to meet their needs and secure their financial survival. Here at Assumption in Pawtucket, thanks to the foresight and vision of past parishioners and parish councils, we are blessed because we already established such an endowment fund many years ago.

We are also blessed here at Assumption in that, having established our Endowment Fund, many parishioners generously contributed to it in the past and to this day. Indeed, some parishioners were even kind enough to endow sizable funds through their wills to our community in order to guarantee the continuity of our beloved parish. We are where we are today thanks to such people and we should never let their generosity be forgotten.

Our Endowment Fund’s value is $864,470.69 as of November 29, 2021. As our community’s By-Laws stipulate, half of our Endowment Fund’s annual return goes towards the budget expenses of our community and the other half is re-invested.

In realizing the needs of our community and sharing the great vision of these benefactors, it behooves us to imitate them and to make whatever contribution we can – small or great – to continue their tradition and to help the fund grow. In this way we will secure the future of our beloved Assumption Church. For this purpose, each month we will include this new column dedicated to the Endowment Fund in our monthly newsletter. We will be posting the current value of the fund to keep you abreast regarding its growth and we will list the names of past parishioners as well as new donors who contribute to the fund in memory of loved ones. For the sake of confidentiality, names will be included but not the monetary amounts.

Let us all honor our benefactors by imitating them, sharing in their dreams for the future and by fostering with them the continuation of our church into perpetuity.

Cemetery Fund

Assumption Church is in the process of having work performed by landscapers on our grounds at Walnut Hill Cemetery on Armistice Boulevard in Pawtucket. It would be greatly appreciated if you would consider making a donation to help with the upkeep and beautification of the grounds where so many of our deceased loved ones are buried. If you have not already done so, please contribute to the Cemetery Fund so that completion of the work can take place. Thank you to those parishioners who have already made donations as well as to the following parishioner who made a recent donation:

Thank you for your continued support!!!
Thank You!
All the AHEPA Brothers would like to extend a BIG Thank You to those who helped us and supported the Fall Foliage Festival! Good time to get together and to support our community and our AHEPA Chapter at the same time! We extend our thanks to the Parish Council for its support and cooperation. Let our joint effort be an example to our community as well as others on how we can work together, to bring people together, knowing in our hearts that we are only stewards of our Church, parish, and buildings. And as stewards of what God has provided to us, we will all need to work together for the common good putting aside anything else which at the end of the day is only noise!

AHEPA Pawtucket Chapter Continues CASA 2021 Drive!
Thank you to all who supported our CASA (Coats and Sustainability from Assumption!) effort! Many donations were dropped off of your used clothing for men, women, and children! Many dry food items dry such as pasta, rice, beans were also dropped off. Your donations are helping people in need this winter. All donated items have been delivered to homeless shelters!

AHEPA Honors His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew
The American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association (Order of AHEPA) hosted its 45th Biennial Congressional banquet in honor of His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew I, and to mark the commencement of his historic third Apostolic Visit to the United States at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D.C., Oct. 24, 2021. His Eminence Elder Metropolitan Emmanuel of Chalcedon represented His All-Holiness who felt unwell Sunday morning and was hospitalized overnight for observation. His All-Holiness was released from the hospital Monday morning.

“AHEPA promotes all the values and principles that are the rich legacy of Hellenism – Ancient, Byzantine, and Modern,” His Eminence Metropolitan Emmanuel said during his toast. “And the Holy Archdiocese, as the daughter of the Ecumenical Patriarchate, embodies these values and principles as they have been baptized into Christ through the preaching of the Gospel. For the Omogeneia, the Archdiocese and AHEPA are two hands of one body, and we are grateful for their cooperative spirit.”

In his remarks in honor of His All-Holiness, Supreme President Jimmy Kokotas spoke about the effectiveness and meaning of the Ecumenical Patriarch’s message of unity, love, and compassion, and he pledged AHEPA can do more to amplify the Ecumenical Patriarch’s message. Tonight, we celebrate the 30-year anniversary of His All-Holiness’ election to Ecumenical Patriarch,” he said. “Thirty years of service preaching love, unity and compassion to the world." Kokotas added, "We also must make sure His All-Holiness’ ministry, his message and his spiritual home — the Ecumenical Patriarchate — are safeguarded from the plight they face daily. They must be sustained . . . it must flourish.” His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America received AHEPA’s presentation of $100,000 to become a Founding Member of the Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew Foundation: For the Sacred See of Saint Andrew. Supreme President Jimmy Kokotas and Chairman of the Board Nicholas A. Karacostas, PSP, made the presentation, along with a gift to His Eminence Metropolitan Emmanuel.

Have a Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year!

We Must Preserve the Legacy We Inherited!
We need you to join our AHEPA A121 (Pawtucket) Chapter!

IOCC Sunday, November 21st!

November is designated as IOCC month, especially the last Sunday before Thanksgiving November 21st. We encourage you to support and embrace the work of IOCC which benefits so many people around the world. Many people around the world are in need. Please keep them in your hearts, thoughts, prayers and hopefully support them in any way that you may be able to make a difference in this world in the name of Orthodox Christianity.

We encourage you to put IOCC on your Christmas gift list and please remember that even the smallest donation can make a big difference. If you would like to donate, please donate online at iocc.org, or mail a check payable to IOCC to: Ioannis Apostolakis, 770 Ware Street, Mansfield, MA 02048

Hope after Greece's Wildfires - Families, Small Businesses Receive Aid for Recovering, Rebuilding

Since 2012, IOCC has worked with Apostoli, the humanitarian arm of the Archdiocese of Athens, on the Give for Greece program to provide business and livelihoods support, reliable food access for families in need, medical supplies, and education programs for Greeks and refugees. In addition, IOCC has also offered relief following emergencies. This summer, wildfires raged across Evia, Attica, and the Peloponnese, destroying homes, businesses, and livelihoods as about 300,000 acres burned. Evia, Greece’s second-largest island, was especially hard hit, with one-third of its forests burned, including valuable pine trees — the basis of traditional beekeeping, honey, and resin-collecting industries.

When a seaside community of east Attica was destroyed by fire in 2018, IOCC response focused on meeting the immediate basic needs of those who had lost their only homes. After the devastating 2007 fires, IOCC helped farmers in the Peloponnese start over by providing livestock feed and other supplies.

In response to the latest fires, IOCC began with an on-the-ground needs assessment which the team is using to custom design response in affected areas. Programming began in the municipality of Ileia, in the western Peloponnese, an area that also saw widespread fires in 2007. IOCC collaborated with local Church authorities, the Primary School Teachers Association of Pyrgos-Ancient Olympia Municipalities, and partner Apostoli to distribute school-supply vouchers and school kits to full-time local residents affected by this year’s disaster. The items ensured that families in some of the hardest hit areas could buy what their children needed to start the school year.

Leveraging its experience of both emergency response and long-term development aid in Greece, especially helping small-holder farmers and microbusinesses, IOCC is committed to long-term assistance for survivors of this summer’s fires. As families and communities rebuild their homes and livelihoods, watch for more news of how your generous support is reaching those in need.

Metropolitan Germanos of Ileia blessed students and school before local families in this fire-affected community received school-supply vouchers and school kits.

Here is How YOU Can Help More!

- Become a monthly donor to IOCC
- Send a donation to IOCC for a cause that touches your heart!
- Give a donation to Ioannis Apostolakis, payable to IOCC, for any occasion you would like to make a difference!

Help Us Provide For Those in Need!

And remember, 92 cents of every dollar you give goes to our humanitarian work. The other 8 cents is for administration and fundraising costs. Charity Navigator gives IOCC a 4-star rating (highest possible) for financial health, accountability and transparency. Plus, every dollar you give helps us secure $7 more in support from governments, foundations, and other sources.

IOCC is the official humanitarian aid agency of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States. Since its inception in 1992, IOCC has delivered $650 million in relief and development programs to families and communities in more than 50 countries. IOCC is a member of the ACT Alliance, a global coalition of churches and agencies engaged in development, humanitarian assistance and advocacy. You can help to beautify our church grounds. Donations towards our church grounds are always very much appreciated so that our property can remain beautiful year round. Appreciation and many thanks to Roula Vellopoulou, Nick Vellopoulos, Anastasia Vellopoulou, Ioanna Wright, and Charoula Xoulei Campos who are our church gardeners spending endless hours cutting the grass, planting, watering, and trimming the beautiful flowers and shrubs surrounding our premises.
