was exactly nine months after the Passion of our Lord in the year when he was crucified and placed in the tomb for us. Why nine months? The Church understood everything in the light of the Passion and Resurrection and this Passion and Resurrection was not understood chronologically as the end of a long process. Therefore the Passion gave birth to Christ and not the other way around! Thus, in the icon of the Nativity, the birth of Christ is clearly seen in terms of the Passion. Notice in the icon that he already from his birth has a Cross in His halo – this is because we only can see Him as the crucified and risen Lord. As we read in the Gospel of St. Luke, when the disciples met the risen Christ on the Road to Emmaus, they didn’t understand who he was until he “expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself” (Luke 24:27) and showed them how everything in the Old Testament talked about Him and how he had to suffer and die in order to enter into His glory (Luke 24:26 - and that it is the same thing for us in our lives!).

Christ in the Nativity icon is also lying in the manger wrapped in swaddling clothes. The manger looks like a stone sarcophagus — a tomb — and he is already wrapped like a mummy. And what do you put in a manger? Food. This is because Christ is our food. What does Bethlehem mean? House of bread. Christ is our bread and this is the bread He offers us today in Church in Holy Communion. This life is not our final destination, rather it is our desert-journey

Fr. Philip’s Christmas Message:
The Mystery of God’s Love

Everything in our Church liturgical practice, hymnology and iconography is given to us for our spiritual nourishment. This is very clearly the case in our celebration of Christmas as we shall see below.

It turns out that even the date that we celebrate Christmas on, December 25th, has deep theological significance. Historians like to say that celebrating Christmas on this date served the purpose of Christianizing the pagan celebration of the sun at the winter solstice. This explanation is not fully satisfactory because this justification first appears in the 4th century yet the celebration of Christmas on this date (in the West first) appeared much earlier. It turns out that this date, due to its connection with the date of another Church holiday, becomes a summary of salvation history. A first explanation of the date December 25th could be that it is exactly nine months after March 25th which today is the celebration of the Annunciation of Mary, the conception of Christ in the womb of the Theotokos. However, the celebration of the Annunciation on this date is actually a practice from the end of the fourth century and therefore March 25th has another deeper theological meaning from the very beginning of Church history. It turns out that Christ was crucified and placed in the tomb on 14 Nissan of the Jewish calendar (the Jewish Passover), which that year was on March 25th according to the Roman Calendar in use then. So the original reason for the celebration of Christmas on December 25th was that it as we make our way to the promised land, the Kingdom of God! We escape sin (Egypt) and enter into this desert by passing through the red sea, this is our baptism, after which we journey in our life towards the promised land as we eat the manna from heaven sent to us by God in the Church. The Christ child is in a cave. Why? Look at how the cave and the Theotokos together form one shape, an oval enclosure, that frames the Christ child. In the synthesis of the icon this shape is intended to suggest a womb, but also the tomb of Christ which was a cave! This is to follow scripture and hymnography that clearly connect the tomb and the womb that held Christ. Isaiah 54:1 announces the following prophesy referring to the Theotokos: “Rejoice, O barren woman who does not bear; break forth and cry out, you who are not in travail, for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married woman.” Significantly, this reference to birth is read only once a year only at the “un-nailing vespers” of Holy Friday right before we put the dead Christ into His tomb, the “Epitaphio.” In the Gospels and in our hymnography it is emphasized that Christ was put into the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea that was “hewn out of the rock” (Luke 23:53) – i.e., a cave – and that it was “a new tomb, in which no one had yet been laid” (John 19:41). So at the Passion we have Joseph of Arimathea, who was “a good and just man” (Luke 23:50) and his virgin tomb, and in Christmas we have Joseph the betrothed, who was also described as “a just man” (Matt. 1:19), and the virgin womb of the Theotokos, his betrothed. The idea here is that the real beginning/conception that led to the birth of Christ and everything we celebrate in Church is the Passion! So for this reason the birth is celebrated nine months after the Passion! In keeping with this connection, the icon of the Nativity uses imagery from the Passion to understand the birth. As we said above, the Nativity actually comes from the Passion and not the other way around! This is why not only the icon of the Nativity, but all Orthodox icons, give us not one slice of history but tell us the whole story of salvation in one picture!

Knowing what God has done for us in the Nativity, but also in all the feasts of the Church, let us rejoice in His love for us that is seen most clearly in the mystery of His Passion and Resurrection. May this love of God fill all of you and your families with every blessing from God this Christmas and always!

Merry Christmas!

Χριστουγεννιάτικο μήνυμα π. Φιλίππου: Τὸ μυστήριο τῆς ἀγάπης τοῦ Θεοῦ

Όλη η λειτουργική πράξη, η ύμνολογία καὶ η άγιογραφία τῆς ἐκκλησίας μᾶς δίδονε ως τροφὴ για τὴν πνευματική μας ἀνάπτυξη. Αὐτό καθίσταται σαφῶς στὴ γιορτή τῶν Χριστουγέννων ὅπου θα δούμε ἁμέσως παρακάτω.

Μία ιστορικὴ ἁνάδομη μᾶς δείχνει ότι ἀκόμη καὶ η ἡμερομηνία στὴν οποία γιορτάζουμε τὰ Χριστούγεννα, η 25η Δεκεμβρίου, κρύπτει μία βαθιὰ θεολογικὴ σημασία. Αὐτὸς ο δράκος τῶν Εὐαγγελίων, ἀρχηγὸς τῆς θεολογικῆς απόστασης, κρύπτει τὴν ᾿Αγάπη τοῦ Θεοῦ.

Ἡ ἐκκλησία, με τὴν ἡμερομηνία τῆς 25ης Δεκεμβρίου, κρύπτει μία βαθιὰ θεολογικὴ σημασία. Ο Χριστός κατέκτησε τὸν τάφο, καθὼς κατέκτησε τὴν ἀνάπτυξη στὴν ζωή του. Η ἡμερομηνία αὐτή κρύπτει ἕνα μέγα τέμπο για τὸν ἅγιο πόλεμο τῆς ζωῆς.

Ὅταν καθίσταται σαφέστατα, τὸ μυστήριο τῆς ἀγάπης τοῦ Θεοῦ.

Ἡ ἐκκλησία, με τὴν ἡμερομηνία τῆς 25ης Δεκεμβρίου, κρύπτει μία βαθιὰ τελετή τῆς ζωῆς. Σὲ αὐτὴν καθίσταται σαφῆς τὸ μύστηρο τῆς ἀγάπης τοῦ Θεοῦ. Ο Χριστός κατέκτησε τὸν τάφο καὶ τὴν ἀνάκτηση.

Ὅταν καθίσταται σαφῆς τὸ μύστηρο τῆς ἀγάπης τοῦ Θεοῦ, ο Χριστός κατέκτησε τὸν τάφο καὶ τὴν ἀνάκτηση.
The Conception by St. Anna of the Most Holy Theotokos . . .

According to the ancient tradition of the Church, since Saint Anna, the Ancestor of God, was barren, she and her husband Joachim remained without children until old age. Therefore, sorrowing over their childlessness, they besought God with a promise that, if He were to grant them the fruit of the womb, they would offer their offspring to Him as a gift. And God, hearkening to their supplication, informed them through an Angel concerning the birth of the Virgin. And thus, through God’s promise, Anna conceived according to the laws of nature, and was deemed worthy to become the mother of the Mother of our Lord (see also Sept. 8).

St. Nicholas the Wonderworker, Archbishop of Myra . . .

This Saint lived during the reign of Saint Constantine the Great and reposed in 330. As a young man, he desired to espouse the solitary life. He made a pilgrimage to the holy city, Jerusalem, where he found a place to withdraw to devote himself to prayer. It was made known to him, however, that this was not the will of God for him, but that he should return to his homeland to be a cause of salvation for many. He returned to Myra, and was ordained bishop. He became known for his abundant mercy, providing for the poor and needy, and delivering those who had been unjustly accused. No less was he known for his zeal for the truth. He was present at the First Ecumenical Council of the 318 Fathers at Nicaea in 325; upon hearing the blasphemies that Arius brazenly uttered against the Son of God, Saint Nicholas struck him on the face. Since the canons of the Church forbid the clergy to strike any man at all, his fellow bishops were in perplexity what disciplinary action was to be taken against this hierarch whom all revered. In the night our Lord Jesus Christ and our Lady Theotokos appeared to certain of the bishops, informing them that no action was to be taken against him, since he had acted not out of passion, but extreme love and piety. The Dismissal Hymn for holy hierarchs, The truth of things hath revealed thee to thy flock ... was written originally for Saint Nicholas. He is the patron of all travelers, and of sea-farers in particular; he is one of the best known and best loved Saints of all time.

The Nativity of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in the Flesh

The story of the Nativity of Christ is beautifully told in the Holy Scriptures. The story is found in Matthew 1:18-25 and in Luke 2:1-20. No matter how often the Birth of Jesus is told, we realize that it is an important event. As the story is told by the Apostles, the Roman Empire was powerful. The Romans had conquered much of the then known world. Judea and Samaria, what we know today as Israel, were included in their conquests. Emperor Augustus ordered that a census be taken in all his lands. He needed to know how many people lived in the empire so he could tax them. Everyone had to go to the town of their family's origin to register for the census. This meant that Mary and Joseph had to go to Bethlehem. They were descendants of King David and Bethlehem was the City of David.

Mary and Joseph lived in Nazareth and it was a great distance from Bethlehem. It was about 100 miles over very rugged roads. Moreover, Mary was expecting the baby and it was almost time for her to give birth. Bethlehem was a small town and there were many descendants of David who had come to register for the census. By the time Mary and Joseph arrived in Bethlehem, there was no place for them to stay. Joseph tried very hard to find a place to sleep that evening. There was no room at the inn. Finally, Joseph found a cave-like place where they could rest. This place was used by shepherds to protect their sheep in stormy weather. It was here that Mary gave birth to Jesus. The baby was wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in the straw in the manger.

Now, that night the shepherds were out in the fields guarding their sheep. Suddenly, there was a bright light which startled the shepherds. The light was so bright that it turned the night into daylight. Of course, the shepherds were frightened. Nothing such as this had ever happened. Soon an angel appeared and calmed them. The angel said:

"Fear not for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior; which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: You shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger" (Luke 2:11-12).

Then a larger group of angels appeared. They praised and glorified God and sang, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, and good will toward men" (Luke 2:14). When the angels finished singing, they disappeared and the light began to fade. It became dimmer and dimmer until it was dark again. The shepherds were awed. They didn't know what to do. Finally, they decided to leave their flocks of sheep and go to Bethlehem. They decided that they wanted to see for themselves what the angels had told them. When they got to Bethlehem, they found Mary, Joseph, and the infant Jesus. They fell to their knees and adored Jesus.

Some Wise Men came from the East for they knew of the coming of Jesus. They had seen a star that told them that a new king had been born to the Jews. They followed the star and were looking for the child. At this time the governor of Judea was King Herod. He was a wicked man and was feared and hated by the people. When Herod heard about the Wise Men looking for the child, he invited them to his palace. Herod asked the Wise Men to find the child so that he, too, could worship Him. But Herod was lying. He did not want anyone to take his place. The Wise Men went on to look for Jesus. The Star led them to Jesus and Mary. When the Wise Men found Jesus, they fell to their knees and worshipped Him. They gave Jesus gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The Wise Men left but did not return to Herod. They had a dream that warned them that Herod wanted to harm Jesus. Instead, they returned to their native country by a different route.

Icon of the Nativity

The icon of the Nativity tells the story of Christ's birth from the Scriptures. It also shows that all creation is taking part in Christ's birth. The angels give thanks with their song; the heavens give the star; the Wise Men give their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The poor, humble shepherds give their praise and amazement; the earth gives the cave, and humanity gives the Virgin.

This Holy Icon is an icon with many scenes. First, it stresses the importance of the Theotokos, the Mother of Jesus. She is placed in the center and is the largest figure in the icon. In this icon, she is kneeling with crossed arms, looking at the Christ child. The three stars, denoting her virginity before, during, and after the Nativity, are on her garments. The Christ Child, in the center of the icon, is in swaddling clothes and is lying in the manger. In the background is the dark cave where He was born. In the cave are an ox and a donkey guarding the newborn Babe. Even though the Gospels say nothing of the cave, this information is from Holy Tradition. Neither do the Gospels speak of the ox and the donkey, but all icons of the Nativity include these animals. Including the animals in the icon fulfills the prophecy of Isaiah 1:3, "The ox knows his master, and the donkey his master's crib; but Israel does not know me, and the people have not regarded me." The long ray of light from the star points directly to the cave. This ray comes from the star and travels to all parts of the world. It teaches that this bright star is an astronomical happening, and is a messenger from heaven announcing the birth of Jesus.

On the left hand side of the icon is another scene. The Wise Men, who were led by the star, are riding horses to bring their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh to Jesus. The Wise Men are of various ages. One is without a beard. In those days, young men did not wear beards. The other Wise Man has long hair and a long beard, which indicates that he is much older. These details teach that regardless of age and appearance, the Good News was given to each and everyone.

Opposite the Wise Men is the scene with the humble shepherds. An angel proclaims the glad tidings. A young shepherd plays a reed instrument. This scene reveals that the music of the humans was added to the hymn of the angels. Across from the shepherd's scene is the heavenly choir of angels. They are giving glory to God. The angels serve two purposes in the Nativity of Christ. They give glory to God and announce the good news to all mankind.

The background shows very rugged terrain. This is not true representation of the land in this area. Joseph could not find room in Bethlehem, so they went outside of Bethlehem to a cave. This rocky mountain formation only serves as a background for the event. In the lower part of the icon are two more scenes. In the right hand corner are the two women Joseph brought to take care of the Christ child. They are bathing Him just as any baby is bathed. The humanity of Jesus is clearly shown in this setting.

Opposite the bathing of Jesus scene sits a sad and worried Joseph. He is not part of the central group the Christ Child and the Theotokos. Joseph is not the natural father. Joseph is troubled and despondent. There is an old man talking to Joseph. The old man is Satan. Satan can appear in many forms. Here he is as an old man who is tempting Joseph and disturbing him. Satan is telling Joseph that virgin birth is impossible. He's telling Joseph that he's a fool if he believes this. This story comes to us from Holy Tradition. The sad Joseph shows us not only his personal predicament but the dilemma of all mankind, the difficulty of accepting that which is "beyond words or reason."

The tree, which is in the middle of the lower part of the icon, is a symbol of the Tree of Jesse. This tree refers to Isaiah 11:1-2. "But a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom. The spirit of the Lord shall rest upon Him." King David was often mentioned as the son of Jesse and Jesus was from the House of David.

The Holy Icon of the Nativity reminds one to praise and glorify the Birth of Christ. The celebration of Christmas each year serves to remind each and every one of us that Christ came for you and me. The Orthodox Celebration of the Feast of the Nativity

As with Pascha, or Easter, the Feast of the Nativity begins with a period of preparation. It is proceeded by a fast corresponding to Lent and lasting for forty days. The fast begins on November 15.

On the Sundays immediately before December 25, special commemorations emphasize the link between the Old Covenant and the New. On December 20 the Forefeast of the Nativity is commemorated, and the daily liturgical texts are directed toward the Feast itself. On Christmas Eve, services include the Great or Royal Hours, the Great Vespers, and the Liturgy of Saint Basil.

On Christmas Day the service commemorates the birth of Christ in Bethlehem, the adoration of the Shepherds, and the arrival of the Wise Men with their gifts. The service held on this day is the Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom.

The days following Christmas are associated with the Theotokos and Joseph. December 26 is the Synaxis of the Mother of God, and the first Sunday after the Feast commemorates “Joseph the Betrothed.” December 29 commemorates the Massacre of the Innocents, and January 1 the Circumcision of our Lord. The Nativity season ends on December 31, but the spirit of the festival extends to the celebration of Theophany (Epiphany), the feast commemorating the Baptism of our Lord in the Jordan River.

IPADS NEEDED FOR OUR CHURCH
The new iPads are now on sale by Apple! If any parishioner plans to upgrade their iPad, we would be most grateful if you would consider donating your old iPad to our Church. We used borrowed ones for the festival, and it worked out very well, but we need to begin acquiring our own. The Church does not need the power of new ones, so your old units may be perfect! We can put two of them to immediate use as a credit card machine in the Church and as an audio visual tool in the Community Center.

Please contact the Church Office if you might be able to consider this. (Technical info: The models we really need are full size iPad 4s or newer, initially released November 2012. If it has the "lightning connector" - the same power connector that’s on iPhones - then it’s at least an iPad 4.) Thank you for your support!

International Orthodox Christian Charities Launches Campaign for Children’s Programs in Syria

IOCC-supported Dream Centers in Syria are safe spaces for play, learning and psychosocial support that help children and caregivers deal with trauma and difficult experiences.

Baltimore, Md. (October 15, 2019) – International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC) is launching a new fundraising campaign aiming to raise $250,000 for programming that supports children and families who have survived trauma and tragedy in Syria.

Children are among the millions affected by the conflict in Syria including many displaced in their own country. Whether through exposure to violence or the loss of a home, family member, and stable daily life, children are especially susceptible to mental distress and uncertainty about the future. Working with Church partner the Greek Orthodox Patriarchate of Antioch and All the East, Department of Ecumenical Relations and Development, IOCC has created safe spaces called Dream Centers across Syria to help address these needs.

Dream Centers are safe spaces for play, learning, and psychosocial support that help children (and their caregivers) deal with trauma and difficult experiences. Programming prioritizes unaccompanied children, those separated from caregivers, and orphans. Specialists work to help children become more resilient to trauma, and to emotionally reconnect with family and community through positive interactions and learning.

Four centers in various locations (urban and rural) have so far served thousands. Children ages 4 to 18 take part in 3-month courses of twice-weekly sessions and interactive activities like sports, theater, games, and art. The sessions aim to improve children’s learning, memory, focus, and creative thinking, as well as to foster healthy emotional expression, communication, and responsibility. Children also gain body-boundary awareness and learn ways to protect themselves against harassment.

Here is How YOU Can Help More!

- Become a monthly donor to IOCC
- Send a donation to IOCC for a cause that touches your heart!

And remember that 92 cents of every dollar you give goes to our humanitarian work. The other 8 cents is for administration and fundraising costs. Charity Navigator gives IOCC a 4-star rating (highest possible) for financial health, accountability and transparency. Plus, every dollar you give helps us secure $7 more in support from governments, foundations, and other sources.

IOCC is the official humanitarian aid agency of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States of America. Since its inception in 1992, IOCC has delivered $580 million in relief and development programs to families and communities in more than 50 countries. Adoration of the Magi and Stewardship

Regarding the events of the Birth of Christ, we recall the visit of the Wise Men to the Christ Child. Seeking the Newborn King, they offer gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Their offering reminds the faithful that we too must present our gifts to the Lord. The gifts we offer through good stewardship are our time, talents, and treasure. The Magi traveled a great distance to meet the newborn King. Following the Star of Bethlehem, they were guided to prostrate themselves before the God incarnate. They understood what it meant to present their very best to the Lord. We must continue to let the star guide us in acts of Christian stewardship. What cause can possibly be more worthy than to present ourselves to God so that the sacred mission of His Church might be fulfilled? We should not wait for the Church to ask for our support. We all must step forward voluntarily to meet the Lord and to present ourselves to Him by the giving of our time, talents, and treasure.

Much Appreciation

We would like to give our thanks to the following parishioners for their dedication each month when they volunteer to fold and label the monthly newsletter. It is with much gratitude and appreciation that we express our heartfelt thanks to: Penelope Vartanian, Marion Manickas, Tina Demopoulos, Marion Pollock, Pat Gaza, Barbara Kiras, Eleni Dafulas, Gina Taktikos, Harriet Pappas, Betty Missirlis, and Charikleia Campos.
