Earth. Nuclear weapons are the symbol of man’s Promethean titanism, the tangible expression of the “complex of omnipotence” of the contemporary “man-god.”

In using the power that stems from science and technology, what is revealed today is the ambivalence of man’s freedom. Science serves life; it contributes to progress, to confronting illnesses and many conditions that were hitherto considered “fateful”; it creates new positive perspectives for the future. However, at the same time, it provides man with all-powerful means, whose misuse can be turned destructive. We are experiencing the unfolding destruction of the natural environment, of biodiversity, of flora and fauna, of the pollution of aquatic resources and the atmosphere, the progressing collapse of climate balance, as well as other excesses of boundaries and measures in many dimensions of life. The Holy and Great Council of the Orthodox Church (Crete, 2016) rightly and splendidly decreed that “scientific knowledge does not mobilize the moral will of man, who knows the dangers but continues to act as if he did not know.” (Encyclical, § 11)

It is apparent that the protection of the common good, of the integrity of the natural environment, is the common responsibility of all inhabitants of the earth. The contemporary categorical imperative for humankind is that we live without destroying the environment. However, while on a personal level... and on the level of many communities, groups, movements and organizations, there is a demonstration of great sensitivity and ecological responsibility, nations and economic agents are unable – in the name of geopolitical ambitions and the “autonomy of the economy” – to adopt the correct decisions for the protection of creation and instead cultivate the illusion that the pretended “global ecological destruction” is an ideological fabrication of ecological movements and that the natural environment has the power of renewing itself. Yet the crucial question remains: How much longer will nature endure the fruitless discussions and consultations, as well as any further delay in assuming decisive actions for its protection?

The fact that, during the period of the pandemic of the novel coronavirus Covid-19, with the mandatory restrictions of movement, the shutdown of factories, and the diminishment in industrial activity and production, we observed a reduction of pollution and encumbrance of the atmosphere, has proved the anthropogenic nature of the contemporary ecological crisis. It became once again clear that industry, the contemporary means of transportation, the automobile and the airplane, the non-negotiable priority of economic indicators and the like, negatively impact the environmental balance and that a change of direction toward an ecological economy constitutes an unwavering necessity. There is no genuine progress that is founded on the destruction of the natural environment. It is inconceivable that we adopt economic decisions without also taking into account their ecological consequences. Economic development cannot remain a nightmare for ecology. We are certain that there is an alternative way of economic structure and development besides the economism and the orientation of economic activity toward the maximization of profiteering. The future of humanity is not the homo œconomicus.

The Ecumenical Patriarchate, which in recent decades has pioneered in the field of the protection of the creation, will continue its ecological initiatives, the organization of ecological conferences, the mobilization of its faithful and especially the youth, the promotion of the environment’s protection as a fundamental subject for interreligious dialogue and the common initiatives of religions, the contacts with political leaders and institutions, the cooperation with environmental organizations and ecological movements. It is evident that the collaboration for the protection of the environment creates additional avenues of communication and possibilities for new common actions.
We repeat that the environmental activities of the Ecumenical Patriarchate are an extension of its ecclesiological self-consciousness and do not comprise a simple circumstantial reaction to a new phenomenon. The very life of the Church is an applied ecology. The sacraments of the Church, its entire life of worship, its asceticism and communal life, the daily life of its faithful, express and generate the deepest respect for creation. The ecological sensitivity of Orthodoxy was not created by but emerged from the contemporary environmental crisis. The struggle for the protection of creation is a central dimension of our faith. Respect for the environment is an act of doxology of God's name, while the destruction of creation is an offense against the Creator, entirely irreconcilable with the basic tenets of Christian theology.

Most honorable brothers and dearly beloved children,

The ecofriendly values of the Orthodox tradition, the precious legacy of the Fathers, constitute an embankment against the culture, whose axiological foundation is the domination of man over nature. Faith in Christ inspires and strengthens the human endeavor even before the immense challenges. From the perspective of faith, we are able to discover and assess not only the problematic dimensions, but also the positive possibilities and prospects of contemporary civilization. We call upon Orthodox young men and women to realize the significance of living as faithful Christians and contemporary people. Faith in the eternal destiny of man strengthens our witness in the world.

In this spirit, from the Phanar, we wish all of you a propitious and all-blessed new ecclesiastical year, fruitful in Christ-like deeds, for the benefit of all creation and to the glory of the all-wise Creator of all. And we invoke upon you, through the intercessions of the All-Holy Theotokos, the Pammakaristos, the grace and mercy of the God of wonders.

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST AND THEOLOGIAN 8 A.M. Orthros 9 A.M. Divine Liturgy

LIVE STREAM and Limited In-Person Church Attendance
Nikitas the Great Martyr

SEPTEMBER 15th
This Saint was of high birth among the Goths beyond the Danube River. He was taken by Athanaric, pagan ruler of the Goths, and after being tortured, he was burned to death for his confession of Christ. According to some, this took place during the reign of Saint Constantine the Great; according to others, under the Emperor Gratian.

Apolytikion of Great Martyr Nikitas (Fourth Tone)
Thy Martyr, O Lord, in his courageous contest for Thee received the prize of the crowns of incorruption and life from Thee, our immortal God. For since he possessed Thy strength, he cast down the tyrants and wholly destroyed the demons’ strengthless presumption. O Christ God, by his prayers, save our souls, since Thou art merciful.

Kontakion of Great Martyr Nikitas (Second Tone)
Destroying the might of error by thy firm resolve, and taking the crown of vict'ry through thy sufferings, O Nikitas, namesake of vict'ry, thou rejoicest with angel-kind, and with them, O glorious one, thou ceaselessly prayest Christ God for us all.

Euphemia the Great Martyr

SEPTEMBER 16th
Saint Euphemia was from Chalcedon and lived in virginity. According to some, she suffered martyrdom during the reign of Diocletian in 303; according to others, in 307. Her sacred relics are preserved in the Patriarchate in Constantinople.

Apolytikion of Great Martyr Euphemia (Third Tone)
O Euphemia, Christ's comely virgin, thou didst fill the Orthodox with gladness and didst cover with shame all the heretics; for at the holy Fourth Council in Chalcedon, thou didst confirm what the Fathers decreed aright. O all-glorious Great Martyr, do thou entreat Christ God that His great mercy may be granted unto us.

Kontakion of Great Martyr Euphemia (Fourth Tone)
Thou strovest valiantly in thy sacred contest; and even after death, thou makest us holy with streams of healings, O all-famed Euphemia. For this cause we venerate thy most holy dormition and with faith we stand before thine all-ven'rable relics, that we be freed from illness of the soul and also draw forth the grace of thy miracles.
The Conception of St. John the Baptist

SEPTEMBER 23rd

This came to pass fifteen months before the birth of Christ, after the vision of the Angel that Zacharias, the father of the Forerunner, saw in the Temple while he executed the priest's office in the order of his course during the feast of the Tabernacles, as tradition bears witness. In this vision, the Archangel Gabriel appeared to Zacharias and said to him, "Thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John" (Luke 1:13). Knowing that Elizabeth was barren, and that both he and she were elderly, Zacharias did not believe what the Angel told him, although he had before him the example of Abraham and Sarah, of Hannah, mother of the Prophet Samuel, and of other barren women in Israel who gave birth by the power of God. Hence, he was condemned by the Archangel to remain speechless until the fulfilment of these words in their season, which also came to pass (Luke 1:7-24).

Apolytikion of Conception of the Forerunner (Fourth Tone)

Rejoice, O thou barren one who hadst not borne until now; for lo, in all truth thou hast conceived the lamp of the Sun, and he shall send forth his light over all the earth, which is afflicted with blindness. Dance, O Zacharias, and cry out with great boldness: The one to be born is the blest Prophet of God Most High.

Kontakion of Conception of the Forerunner (First Tone)

Great Zacharias now doth rejoice with resplendence; Elizabeth his glorious yoke-mate exulteth; for she hath conceived divine John the Forerunner worthily, whom the great Archangel had announced with rejoicing, whom, as it is meet, we men revere as a sacred initiate of grace divine.

THE YEAR OF THE LORD'S FAVOR, 2020

“And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up; and he went to the synagogue, as his custom was, on the sabbath day. And he stood up to read; and there was given to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. He opened the book and found the place where it was written, ‘The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor / acceptable year of the Lord (ἐνιαυτὸν Κυρίου δεκτόν).’ And he closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, ‘Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.’” (Lk 4: 16-21)

What is “the year of the Lord’s favor” (in the NIV [New International Version] and ESV [English Standard Version] translations) or the “acceptable” year of the Lord (in the KJV [King James Version])? It is our human time, including this difficult 2020. And it’s been ongoing ever since our Lord Jesus Christ proclaimed our human time, with all its difficulties, as “acceptable” or “favorable” to Him and His liberating work in our midst. It is whenever I have my eyes “fixed on Him,” as did all in the synagogue in the above-quoted reading, and open my heart to Him, allowing Him to “release” me when I am captive; to “recover sight” to me when I am blind; to “liberate” me when I am oppressed. So let me not waste time on self-centered fears, resentments, or going around in other such circles. Let me pick up my light-bringing cross also this year, and on this day, as NC-folks (New Calendar) celebrate the Beginning of the Church Year. Let me “accept” this time, our time, which has been accepted by the Lord, as “favorable” to fixing my eyes on Him, and moving forward on our cross-carrying journey. “Behold, now is the accepted time; Behold, now is the day of salvation.” (2 Cor 6: 2)
Where is AHEPA?

Dear friends, we have seen it all in just a few months from the beginning of the year!

- Turkey sending tens of thousands of illegal “immigrants”, mostly men, from Afghanistan, Pakistan, Somalia and militant areas of Syria to break through the Greek border!
- Covid-19 Pandemic, with thousands of victims to the pandemic and economic downturn!
- Hagia Sophia turned into a mosque and the Muslim priest dying of heart attack inside Hagia Sophia!
- Greek and Turkish fleets in a standoff at the Aegean!
- Turkey brutal intervention in Syria, Libya, Iraq and now in Azerbaijan, against Armenia!
- Panagia Soumela iconography vandalized in Pontos (Turkey)
- Turkey trying to establish a new, militant, and fanatic Muslim Ottoman empire, a new Caliphate, in Eastern Mediterranean and threatening with war anyone who stands in its way!

And the question I was asked was: Where are the AHEPAns, what are they doing?

AHEPA is the largest Greek American organization, that nothing will stand in its way to lead and to contribute.

AHEPA is made by people who care and by people who want to make a difference!

- We are helping the youth with educational and athletic scholarships
- We are providing shelter for elderly people and veterans and battered women
- We are helping medical research
- We are well known for our philanthropy actions
- We are engaging in efforts to help for the Covid-19 pandemic!
- We are well-known for our Hellenic Affairs engagements

We are working to lead our community, immediate and extended, as the challenging times that we are going through demand! In Rhode Island and Connecticut your AHEPA Pawtucket Chapter has made a difference and we will be engaging even more in the days to come! The Defense of Hellenism is not consumed in a day or a week or in rushed actions. It is a long-term commitment and engagement! Our cause is not about us only, it is about the freedom and values of our Western civilization and humanity as well!

As such, the real question here is: where are the Greeks, Greek Americans, and Philhellenes? Where are those who care for freedom, religious liberty and they oppose ethnic cleansing and religious militarism and fanaticism and they choose to stand for human rights? We cannot answer this question, this is something for all of you to consider! What we can say is where you should be:

Supreme President George G. Horiates

"We must continue the pressure against Turkey"

Supreme President George G. Horiates calls on every member of AHEPA to maintain the pressure and the fight against Turkey. Although the despotic leader of Turkey has worked behind the scenes to advance his agenda, the AHEPA holds steady to preserving and Defending Hellenism. Since 1922 AHEPA has been in the forefront, working hard to maintain our history and heritage.
Hagia Sophia is only the most current example of an agenda which is retroactive rather than peaceful. The Turkish Republic is crumbling and transforming into the modern Ottoman Caliphate with no end in sight. This current regressive posturing and the anti-western sentiment in Turkey is dangerous. The Greek presence in Turkey has been dwindling over time and now with less than 1500 Hellenes left, our footprint will be washed away forever. Our Patriarchate, the seat of our Orthodox Church, is in jeopardy as are the Human rights and Religious freedoms of every man, woman and child who is not blindly following this arrogant leader. A free and open society provides for a more secure and prosperous region.

AHEPA will fight for the rights of Western Civilization, and for our members who currently live in Turkey. We are ever present in sustaining pressure on the US State Dept, the EU and any other governmental body who can make Turkey back down. We may have lost Hagia Sophia to Mehmet II in 1453, but Constantinople will forever be part of our existence.

AHEPA calls for the continuation of boycott of Turkey and Turkish products and the call for Sanctions. Let’s work together to “hit them where it hurts”

There are times where a great disaster is an opportunity for all of us Orthodox Christians to help! The powerful explosion and disaster in Beirut, which killed scores of people including Greeks, injured thousands, and left hundreds of thousands without a home, is such a time!

Our team in Beirut has reported on the heartbreaking impact of this tragedy and is planning how to best help the people of Lebanon. IOCC has been working in Lebanon for almost 20 years. We are saddened that the country is facing yet another challenge in an already deepening crisis.

Short-term assistance will include hygiene parcels, the expansion of community kitchens, and assessments for building rehabilitation. Given the continuing danger posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, all activities will incorporate a health component, with measures to prevent the further spread of the virus. Your support of IOCC’s work through our International Emergency Response Fund will allow us to respond quickly and effectively in Lebanon.

Please donate to IOCC so that along with our prayers to the people of Lebanon, we can also offer much needed assistance and enable our relief efforts!

Please visit iocc.org to donate or send a check, with the footnote Emergency Fund (Lebanon), payable to IOCC to Ioannis Apostolakis, IOCC Parish Representative for the Assumption Parish (Ioannis Apostolakis, 770 Ware Street, Mansfield, MA 02048).

IOCC does NOT just hand out your donations! IOCC validates every humanitarian organization and IOCC works with local organizations to make sure that the much-needed help arrives at the hands of those who need it the most!

Support from Greece already arrived in Lebanon. Greek rescue teams are operated in Lebanon and a Greek warship delivered help in Beirut!
Harnessing the Sun to Bring a New Day for Georgia

The nation of Georgia emerged from the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991. Located in the Caucasus region, the country has faced continual challenges, from a severe economic crisis triggered by the disintegration of the USSR to various conflicts. While conditions have improved, 20% of Georgians still live below the poverty line; 14% get by on less than $1.25 per day. IOCC has been working to help improve living conditions since 1994. In Georgia, current efforts are powered by the sun. Since 2017, IOCC has been working with local farmers and the Georgian Orthodox Church to build and maintain inexpensive plastic greenhouses, enabling them to raise vegetables — and their income. Building on its initial success, the program is now moving ahead on two fronts.

First, IOCC is providing these greenhouses and training to local farmers and people displaced by the conflicts that have wracked parts of Georgia. For training, IOCC partners with AgroLink, an independent consultant network of international agricultural experts focused on education. The training covers crop diversification, processing practices, marketing, and adopting new technologies. Participants receive seeds or seedlings, fertilizers, and a drip-irrigation system. The goal is to plant high-value, nontraditional vegetables in 10 demonstration plots. Potato, lettuce, pepper, and radish seeds are distributed, along with containers for the seedlings and peat concentrate. The program emphasizes learning by doing — which participants greatly appreciate.

For example, Revaz, now in his 60s, has been displaced from his home for more than 25 years. He cited the adage about teaching a man to fish. “After so many years living in the settlement, nobody taught us how to fish,” Revaz said. “They were just bringing fish. But IOCC’s approach to teach fishing is just a great idea.” The program’s other component, funded by the IOCC Foundation, provides solar-powered produce dryers and teaches participants how to use them. Dried fruits and vegetables — kiwis, persimmons, oranges, and sweet and chili peppers — fetch much higher prices than fresh items and can be stored to sell year-round.

That’s an exciting prospect for Mariam, who lives in temporary housing with her husband and their four children. Her husband, an internally displaced man from Abkhazia, takes short-term construction jobs when they’re available, but his income is sporadic. So Mariam is eager to dry fruits and sell them at market. “Someone in heaven,” she said, “decided to help me and my family.” And while the COVID-19 pandemic temporarily paused in-person trainings during spring, farmers still sowed seeds in their greenhouses and fields, while IOCC staff and consultants advised via phone, photos, and video chat on diseases, pests, and how to address them. IOCC’s long-term projects continue to be a driving force in equipping self-employed farmers to build their enterprises, harnessing the sun to bring a new day for their homeland.

Here is How YOU Can Help More!

- Become a monthly donor to IOCC

Our Church is in the process of having work performed by landscapers on our grounds at Walnut Hill Cemetery on Armistice Boulevard in Pawtucket. It would be greatly appreciated if you would consider making a donation to help with the upkeep and beautification of the grounds where so many of our deceased loved ones are buried. If you have not already done so, please contribute to the Cemetery Fund so that completion of the work can take place. You can help to beautify our church grounds. Donations towards our church grounds are always very much appreciated so that our property can remain beautiful year round. Appreciation and many thanks to Roula Vellopoulou, Nick Vellopoulos, Anastasia Vellopoulou, Ioanna Wright and Charoula Xoulei Campos who are our church gardeners spending endless hours cutting the grass, planting, watering, and trimming the beautiful flowers and shrubs surrounding our premises.
