existence of sin but the lack of repentance. Or, even worse, the lack of self-awareness and humility. That which is horrific is not that you are a sinner but that you point your finger at others pontificating on ethics and judging their life. That is an insult to the mercy of God.

We have all committed misguided and mistaken actions in our life. We have sinned and fallen. We have gotten back up and hoped again. We have hurt others and others have hurt us. Whoever claims that only people have hurt them and not visa-versa is lying. It is impossible to live, to exist and to not commit mistakes, and, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, to not hurt another person, a thing or our natural environment. However, a person is not defined by this. Because a person is not only his or her mistakes or sins: He or she is not only darkness but light, gifts and potential.

No one can be understood or judged then only on the basis of his or her actions. Because oftentimes we have bitten off more than we can chew.
A person can’t be defined only by what he or she does. He is something deeper and unseen. The human being for the Fathers is a mystery. You cannot easily put him in a box, neither can you absolutize him by glorifying him or condemning him. His or her past does not determine his or her future. That which today happened wrongly can be done great tomorrow and that which you did not accomplish yesterday could become a reality in the future.

For this reason the phrase that “every saint has a past and every sinner has a future” has profound meaning. For the Fathers of the Church the human being is not his past but his future. Not that which he is but that which he will be. Not that which he did not accomplish but that which he cannot even yet imagine that he can accomplish.

The Metropolitan of Pergamon John Zizioulas says that “no one is that which he is, rather he is that which he will be on the ‘last day’ . . . . . no judgment on his brother should claim to have an ontological character. We are all potential saints. Repentance and the forgiveness that the Church grants would mean nothing without an eschatological ontology, that is to say, to allow the future, the eschaton, to liberate a person from his past . . . . .”
Στὸ τρέχον τεῦχο τοῦ «Χριστιανικοῦ Φωτός» φιλοξενοῦμε ένα βαρυσήμαντο μήνυμα τοῦ π. Χαράλαμπος Παπαδόπουλος («π. Λίβνος»).

Είσαι αὐτὸ ποὺ δὲν έγινες ἀκόμη . . . .

Λέμε στὴν Ἐκκλησία ὅτι «κάθε ἁγίος ἔχει ἕνα παρελθόν καὶ κάθε ἁμαρτωλός ἕνα μέλλον». Τι σημαίνει θεολογικὰ ἡ φράση; Εἶναι ἀλήθεια ὅτι κατὰ τὴν διδασκαλία τῆς Ἐκκλησίας δὲν ἔχεις κάποιον ἀνθρώπον, κάποιον, άνθρωπον, ἀνθρώπον, πόνον, ἀποκλίνεις. ἴνα μὴν μετέχεις στὴν πτώση καὶ τὴν ἁμαρτία. Πάντες ἁμαρτάνουμε. Η φύση μας δὲν εἶναι τέλεια κι αὐτὸ χρειάζεται αποδοχή. Μπορεῖ νὰ τελειοποιοῦμε ἀλλὰ αὐτὸ ὁλοκληρωτικὰ θὰ συμβεῖ στὰ ἔσχατα, στὸ τέλος τῆς ἱστορίας. Στὴν παρούσα φάση ζωῆς ὑποφέρουμε, πάσχουμε, ἁμαρτάνουμε καὶ πεθαίνουμε μὲ προσδοκία ἀναστάσεως. Γιὰ τοὺς πατέρες τῆς Ἐκκλησίας, τὸ παράδοξο δὲν εἶναι η ἁμαρτία ἀλλὰ ἡ ἀμετανοησία. Ἦ ἀκόμη χειρότερα, ἡ ἀπουσία αὐτογνωσίας καὶ ταπείνωσης. Τὸ φοβερὸ δὲν εἶναι ὅτι εἶσαι ἁμαρτωλὸς ἀλλὰ ὅτι κουνᾶς τὸ δάκτυλο στοὺς ἄλλους μιλῶντας γιὰ ἠθικὴ κρίνοντας τὴν ζωή τους. Αὐτὸ εἶναι πρόκληση ἀπέναντι στὴν μακροθυμία τοῦ Θεοῦ.

Ὅλοι έχουμε κάνει ἀστοχες καὶ λανθασμένες κινήσεις στὴν ζωὴ μας. Ἐχουμε ἀμαρτήσει καὶ πέσει. Ἐχουμε σηκωθεῖ καὶ ἐλπίσει ξανά. Πληγώσαμε καὶ μᾶς πλήγωσαν. Ὅποιος λέει ὅτι μονάχα τὸν πλήγωσαν ἁπλὰ λέει ψέματα. Δὲν γίνεται νὰ ζεῖς, νὰ ὑπάρχεις καὶ νὰ μὴν κάνεις λάθη, νὰ μὴν ἔχες πληγώσει ἤθελημένα ἢ ἀθελημένα. Upcoming Lecture

We all know about the war of the Greek Independence in 1821. However, that war liberated only half of today’s Greece while the other half — the northern part — became free during the Balkan Wars of 1912-1913 in which the Greek-Americans played an important and decisive role.

Up to now, not enough attention has been paid to the contribution of the Greek-Americans and the American philhellenes made in the Balkan Wars. Fortunately, very recently, Peter Giakoumis, a Greek-American military historian, researched and chronicled very thoroughly the story of almost 50,000 Greek-Americans who in 1910 left the USA and joined the Greek army. It has been estimated that the Greek-American forces constituted one-third of the army of that war. Some of them were from the state of Rhode Island (probably our grandfathers and great-grandfathers).

To learn more about this important event, on Monday, February 15th, from 7pm to 8pm, Peter Giakoumis will make a Zoom presentation on his research (a 600-page book!).

Those interested in attending this presentation please contact Bill Frangos at: Wfrangos@gmail.com to be connected to the Zoom link.

Sister Vassa Daily Reflection . . .

Truth vs. Politics

“And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to him, and they said to him, ‘By what authority are you doing these things, or who gave you this authority to do them?’ Jesus said to them, ‘I will ask you a question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men? Answer me.’ And they argued with one another, ‘If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ But shall we say, ‘From men’? — they were afraid of the people, for all held that John was a real prophet. So they answered Jesus, ‘We do not know.’ And Jesus said to them, ‘Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.’” (Mk 11: 27-33)

It's clear that the chief priests, scribes, and elders did not believe John. But here the Lord exposes that they are concerned not with the truth of their beliefs, but with the political implications thereof. Because their politics had become more important to them than their faith. So, although neither He nor His interlocutors give a “straight” answer to a question here, – He does not lie, as do they. He says, I will not tell you, while they say, “We do not know.” And although this is a difficult lie, because they usually presented themselves as knowing-it-all in matters of religion, it is still “safer” politically, than professing their not believing John. After all, they did not want to end up as did he, whose truth-telling cost him his head.

It’s not possible for God to reveal Himself in our public discussions, when we are concerned, in the midst of these discussions, with how “we” look, politically. So let me open up to His grace today, in some heartfelt prayer, that I may re-focus on the truth of the questions with which He challenges us, and not on any political affiliation. O Lord, by the prayers of St. John the Baptist, help us to follow his example, that we may serve Your agenda and not our own.

GOYA

As Christmas quickly rolled around, GOYA was very fortunate to be able to hold our annual Christmas Card Project! We were able to give out hundreds of Christmas cards to many different families who are a part of our church. We would love to give a big thank you to all parishioners who supported us in this project and we wouldn't be able to complete it without all of you! Furthermore, GOYA would like to thank Erin and Konstandina, who chaired this project and got all of the cards done since all of the GOYANS could not gather due to COVID restrictions. Lastly, although COVID does not allow all GOYANS to get together in person, this December we all gathered over a fun virtual meeting and played trivia games!

Respectfully Submitted,
Athanasia Dafulas, GOYA Recording Secretary
On the 2nd of February a poor Christ . . .

About forty days after Christmas, we celebrate the Meeting of the Lord, the holiday when the Panagia and Joseph brought the forty-day old Christ (they “offered” Him) to the Temple as was required by the Jewish religious law. This seems like a simple routine action, right? Think again, this event hides a very profound dynamic . . . .

First of all, this event of the “Meeting of the Lord” is narrated only by the Gospel of Luke, which has a reputation as “the Gospel of the poor and oppressed.” Indicative of this is the fact that Luke, in his narration of the Nativity event, does not mention the three Magi and their expensive gifts, rather, he mentioned the poor shepherds:

Now we come to the Meeting of the Lord. In Luke’s description he writes that the parents of Jesus “offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, ‘a pair of turtledoves or two pigeons.’”

A simple phrase, right? Actually it is full of nuances and innuendos: according to the religious law of the Jews, parents were actually supposed to offer other, more expensive things: a one-year old lamb as well as a turtledove or a pigeon. The poorer sacrifice offered by Joseph and Mary was that which was the alternative version for poor people!

The Gospel does not offer a news report of events. It purposefully illumines certain aspects of the story to give a specific theological message. Since “the Jesus of Luke is …… the great lover of all who are the despised and heirless of the world: the poor, the sinners, the Samaritans, and women.”

(From a blog of the Theologian Thanasis Papathanasiou, editor of the flagship theological journal Synaxe).

Notes:
For the pericopes on the Meeting of the Lord see Luke 2:22 – 24. For the normal, more expensive offering stipulated by the Jewish religious law see Leviticus 12:6 – 8.

On the offering given by poor people (given by the family of Jesus in the Meeting of the Lord event) and on the fact that Joseph and Mary did not reap benefit from the expensive gifts of the Magi (described only in Matthew) because they were sold so they could survive being refugees in Egypt, see the book by Thanasis Papathanasiou, My God the Refugee, (Athens: En Plo, 2018), 70.

Στις 2 Φεβρουαρίου ένας φτωχός Ιησούς...

Σχεδόν σαράντα μέρες μετά τά Χριστούγεννα, γιορτάζεται η Υπαπάντη, δηλαδή το γεγονός ότι η Μαρία και ο Ιωσήφ πήγαν («πρόσφεραν») τόν σαρανταήμερο Ιησού στόν ναό, οπως ορίζε το θρησκευτικός τους νόμος. Απλή ρουτίνα, ε; Γιά να δούμε όμως μήπως μία άλλη δυναμική ύποψινςει εδώ . . . .

Πρώτα ἀπ’ ηλικία, τήν Υπαπάντη τήν έξιστορεί μόνο τό εὐαγγέλιο τοῦ Λουκᾶ, τό οποίο έχει τή δική του ρουτίνα ώς τό «εὐαγγέλιο τῶν καταπιεζόμενων καί τῶν φτωχῶν». Είναι ένδεικτικό ότι στή γέννηση του Χριστού ο Λουκᾶς δέν είχε μημονεύσει τούς τρεῖς Μάγους καί τά άκριβδα δῷρα τους, είχε μημονεύσει όμως τούς τούς τσοπάνθηκες.

Ἐρχόμαστε στήν Υπαπάντη. Ὅταν ο Λουκᾶς τήν περιγράφει, γράφει ότι οἱ γονεῖς τοῦ Ιησοῦ «ἐπρέπε να προσφέρουν καί θυσία ένα ζευγάρι τρυγόνια ἢ δύο μικρὰ περιστέρια». Φράση ἄπλολα, ε; Κι ομοίως, γεμάτη δυναμικά συμφραζόμενα: Βάσει τοῦ θρησκευτικοῦ νόμου, οἱ γονεῖς κανονικά ἐπρέπε να προσφέρουν ἄλλα, άκριμότερα πράγματα: ένα χρονιάρικο ἀμνό κι ένα νεοσσὸ περιστερᾶς ἢ τρυγόνας. Η οἰκονομικά εὐτελέστερη θυσία ποὺ πρόσφεραν λοιπόν ο Ιωσήφ καί η Μαρία ήταν άκριβῶς η θυσία ποὺ προβλεπόταν να προσφέρουν οἱ φτωχοί!

Το εὐαγγέλιο δέν κάνει ἐπορτάζει. Φωτίζει ἠθελημένα μία συγκεκριμένη θεολογική ἐπιλογή. Καθόσον «ὁ Ιησοῦς τοῦ Λουκᾶ εἶναι [...] ο μεγάλος ἐραστὴς ἡλικίας τῶν περιφρονημένων καί ἀκλήρων αὐτοῦ τοῦ κόσμου: τῶν πτωχῶν, τῶν ἁμαρτωλῶν, τῶν Σαμαρειτῶν καί τῶν γυναικῶν».

The Presentation of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

Biblical Story

The story of the Presentation celebrated on February 2nd is told in Luke 2:22-29. Mary and Joseph were faithful Jews and observed their religious customs. An important custom was for the couple to take their first-born son to the Temple. The baby was taken to the Temple forty days after his birth and was dedicated to God. In addition, if the parents were wealthy, they were to bring a lamb and a young pigeon or a turtle dove to be offered as a sacrifice at the Temple. The custom provided that if the parents were poor, they were to offer two pigeons or two turtle doves for the sacrifice.

When Jesus was forty days old, Mary and Joseph took Him to the Temple in Jerusalem. They were not wealthy, so they took two turtle doves with them to offer as a sacrifice at the Temple. As they arrived at the Temple, Mary and Joseph were met by a very old man named Simeon. He was a holy man and was noted as a very intelligent scholar. Simeon spent much time studying about the prophets of Israel. It was during his studies that he learned of the coming of the Messiah. The Jewish people were waiting for the Messiah to come and deliver Israel from their conquerors. From that time on, Simeon spent his time praying for the Messiah to come. He spent many years in prayer. Finally, while Simeon was praying he heard the voice of God. God promised Simeon that he would not die until he had seen the Messiah. When Simeon saw Jesus, he took the baby in his arms and blessed the Lord and said: "Lord, now let Your servant go in peace according to Your promise, because my eyes have seen Your salvation which you have prepared before the face of all peoples, a light to bring revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory to your people Israel." Also, in the Temple was Anna the Prophetess. She had been a widow for many years. Anna was about 84 years old and spent her time in the Temple worshiping, fasting, and praying. When she saw the Christ Child she praised God and spoke of him to all who were awaiting the Messiah.

After Jesus was presented in the Temple, the family returned to Galilee to the town of Nazareth. The Bible tells us that Jesus grew and became strong, and was filled with wisdom.

Icon of the Feast

The Holy Icon shows that the meeting takes place inside the Temple and in front of the altar. The altar has a book or a scroll on it and is covered by a canopy. The Theotokos stands to the left and is holding out her hands in a gesture of offering and humility. The one hand of the Theotokos is covered by her cloak or as it is known, the maphorion. She has just handed her Son to Simeon. Christ is shown as a child, but He is not in swaddling clothes. He is clothed in a small dress and his legs are bare. Jesus appears to be giving a blessing. Simeon holds Jesus with both hands which are covered. This shows the reverence Simeon had for the Messiah. Simeon is bare headed and there is nothing to show that he is a priest. Some biblical scholars say that Simeon was probably a priest of the Temple or a Doctor of the Law. Joseph is behind the Theotokos. He is carrying the two turtle doves for the sacrifice. Anna the Prophetess is also standing behind the Theotokos and is pointing to the Christ child. Joseph offers the sacrifice of a poor family while Anna the Prophetess praises God and "speaks about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem." Luke 2:38

The words Simeon spoke when he saw the Christ Child are known as "St. Simeon's Prayer." This prayer is sung daily at the evening Vespers services of the Orthodox Church. In the Orthodox Church, both baby boys and baby girls are taken to the Church on the fortieth day after their birth. This is done in remembrance of the Theotokos and Joseph taking the infant Jesus to the Temple.
Cemetery Fund (as of 1/31/2021)

Assumption Church is in the process of having work performed by landscapers on our grounds at Walnut Hill Cemetery on Armistice Boulevard in Pawtucket, Rhode Island. It would be greatly appreciated if you would consider making a donation to help with the upkeep and beautification of the grounds where so many of our deceased loved ones are buried. If you have not already done so, please contribute to the Cemetery Fund so that completion of the work can take place. Мерика логия гια σένα – тον Έλληνα της Αμερικής!

Χρόνια πολλά τώρα έχεις δουλέψει και έχεις ιδρώσεις για ένα καλύτερο μέλλον για σένα και την οικογένειά σου. Με τον αγώνα σου έχεις δείξει σε όλους τι μπορούν οι Έλληνες της Αμερικής να κατορθώσουν. Κέρδισες σεβασμό, προκοπή και όλα πετάλια. Θυμάσαι τα μέρη που ήλθες, θυμάσαι ίσως και τα μικρά σου χρονιά στην πατρίδα μας. Τα πανηγύρια που κάνουμε στην Αμερική είναι καλά και τα χαιρόμαστε αλλά δεν μπορούν να κρύψουν τον καθημερινό μας και την Ελλάδα μας που μας έχει πάρει.

Όλα αυτά που θυμόμαστε από την Ελλάδα, δεν ήταν πάντα έτσι. Χρειάστηκαν πίστη, αγώνες, θυσίες και αίμα ηρώων για να γίνουν. Σήμερα, αυτά που έχουμε μέσα στην καρδιά μας από την Ελλάδα απειλούνται. Και όλοι μας πρέπει να σκεφθούμε τι θα κάνουμε. Μπορούμε να συζητάμε για τι το θα κάναμε εμείς αν είμαστε πρωθυπουργοί ή υπουργοί όταν πίνουμε το καφεδάκι μας. Η ίσως μας απασχολεί η επίθεση που δέχεται ο Ελληνισμός μέχρι να πάμε στο επόμενο γλέντι, όταν μπορούσαμε, η μέχρι την επόμενη μέρα μέχρι να πάμε στη δουλειά.

Αυτό όμως πόσο βοηθάει την Ελλάδα μας; Όσο δεν κάνουμε κάτι, αφήνουμε την Ελλάδα μας στην τύχη της. Αν ψάχνετε να βρείτε τρόπο να βοηθήσετε την Ελλάδα μας, η ΑΧΕΠΑ σας καλεί να ενώσετε μαζί μας. Και μόνο απλό μέλος να γίνετε, χωρίς τίποτα άλλο να κάνετε, δίνετε δύναμη στη φωνή της ΑΧΕΠΑ.

Όταν η ΑΧΕΠΑ μιλάει στους ισχυρούς αυτής της χώρας μας ρωτάνε πόσοι είδατε και ποιοι είναι οι Έλληνες της Αμερικής; Όσοι Έλληνες πατριώτες, βοηθήστε μας να τους δώσουμε την απάντηση που μόνο μαζί μπορούμε να δώσουμε! Ταυτόχρονα, ισχυροποιείται ο Ελληνισμός της Αμερικής – δηλαδή τα παιδιά σας και τα εγγόνια σας!
Ηρθε η ώρα να γράψουμε ιστορία στην Αμερική και τον κόσμο. Αυτή η ώρα είναι η δική μας ώρα, ανήκει στη δική μας γενιά. Μόνο εμείς θα το κάνουμε, κανένας άλλος. Ενταχθείτε στην ΑΧΕΠΑ, βοηθήστε μας με κάθε τρόπο!

AHEPA Commends U.S. Embassy’s Campaign to Commemorate Greece’s Bicentennial
The American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association (Order of AHEPA) commends the U.S. Embassy in Athens on the launch of its year-long campaign to commemorate Greece’s Bicentennial entitled “USA & Greece: Celebrating 200 Years of Friendship,” announced Supreme President George G. Horiates.

“We are pleased to see a campaign that highlights stories of friendship and the historical connection between our people of Greece and the United States; educates and celebrates the role American Philhellenes played in Greece’s fight for independence; champions entrepreneurship; and overall, displays pride and commitment to the strategic partnership between two allied countries, Greece and the United States.”

“AHEPA looks forward to a year full of commemorative events that includes, with great anticipation, hosting our annual Supreme Convention in Athens in July 2021. We are pleased to be working in cooperation with the Greek government and the U.S. Embassy in Athens to join in the celebration of the bicentennial of Greece’s independence,” Supreme President Horiates said. AHEPA previewed the U.S. Embassy’s campaign in the newly-released issue of The Ahepan magazine.

We Must Preserve the Legacy We Inherited!
We need you to join our AHEPA A121 (Pawtucket) Chapter!

We ask all of you to join and support your AHEPA Pawtucket chapter. You can get as much involved as you have time or desire. Please keep in mind, that just by becoming a member and through your yearly membership fee you help us to . . .

- Support AHEPA activities and publications
- Support our Chapter’s activities and representation
- Give strength to our Pawtucket chapter though membership counts
- Provide academic and athletic scholarships
- Make our voice heard for things that matter
- Make a difference in every community and in the country as well

This is an invitation to everyone – we need all of you! Your opinion will always count, whether you are attending our meetings in person, or you are submitting your ideas via email, phone, text or personal conversation. For membership information, applications please see Yianni Apostolakis, Tom Andrikopoulos or Nick Bitsakis.

In an incredibly challenging season, a few stories of faith, love and fellowship can always put a smile of hope in our face!

Greece: Celebrating Success, Looking Ahead at Frontistirio

With support from IOCC, the Social Frontistirio of the Archdiocese of Athens offers specialized tutoring for talented students who otherwise couldn’t afford it. These lessons, typically expensive, are necessary for success in the Panhellenic Examinations, Greece’s university entrance exams. With its high-quality courses offered free of charge, Frontistirio is opening a path to higher education to hardworking students. While the pandemic made this year particularly challenging, with support from IOCC and Church partner Apostoli, during Greece’s lockdown Frontistirio quickly moved all lessons online and saw students through to their goal of scoring well in the Panhellenic Exams.

Moving Toward His Dream

An example of the strength and perseverance of children from Jordan.

Dia was born with spina bifida, a birth defect in his spinal bones that left him unable to walk without help. Living with a disability is challenging under any circumstances — compound that with difficult living conditions and very limited resources — and it could be easy to lose hope. Despite his challenging start, Dia grew to be a strong and intelligent boy.

In 2017, Dia’s mother sought help from an IOCC screening team in East Amman. The team found that with a specialized wheelchair Dia would be able to attend school. I had the pleasure of meeting this young man and was there as he was fitted for the wheelchair. I saw the look of joy as he moved on his own power for the first time — and realized what this chair meant for his future.

Thanks to your support, Dia is in third grade at an IOCC-partner-run school. He has friends, is doing well in school, and working toward his dream of being an architect.

Growing to Self-Sufficiency

Sometimes life as we know it can change quickly — a devastating storm, wildfire, or in this case war. What caused our life to change isn’t as important as how we react to it and how we rebuild. This Story of Hope demonstrates the resilience of those we serve when life takes an unexpected turn. Before the Balkan wars, Miroslav, his wife, and children lived with his parents on their farm in Bosnia’s Una River valley. They worked in a metal factory to provide for their family. After the war, they were unable to find salaried employment. Miroslav began farming full time to support his family.

Miroslav has a new 3,200 square-foot greenhouse from IOCC, where he was growing seedlings in the rich valley soil. In time, he did so well that the family added a second greenhouse to grow flowers. Thanks to your generosity, today, Miroslav also produces and sells rakia, a brandy made from pears and plums — a clear example of how the right kind of help has lasting impacts.

Here is How YOU Can Help More!

- Become a monthly donor to IOCC
- Send a donation to IOCC for a cause that touches your heart!
- Give a donation to Ioannis Apostolakis, payable to IOCC, for any occasion you would like to make a difference!

Help Us Provide For Those in Need!

And remember, 92 cents of every dollar you give goes to our humanitarian work. The other 8 cents is for administration and fundraising costs. Charity Navigator gives IOCC a 4-star rating (highest possible) for financial health, accountability and transparency. Plus, every dollar you give helps us secure $7 more in support from governments, foundations, and other sources.

IOCC is the official humanitarian aid agency of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States of America. Since its inception in 1992, IOCC has delivered $650 million in relief and development programs to families and communities in more than 50 countries. IOCC is a member of the ACT Alliance, a global coalition of churches and agencies engaged in development, humanitarian assistance and advocacy. Church Grounds

You can help to beautify our church grounds. Donations towards our church grounds are always very much appreciated so that our property can remain beautiful year round. Appreciation and many thanks to Roula Vellopoulou, Nick Vellopoulos, Anastasia Vellopoulou, Ioanna Wright, and Charoula Xoulei Campos who are our church gardeners spending endless hours cutting the grass, planting, watering, and trimming the beautiful flowers and shrubs surrounding our premises.
