

Dear Parishioners,

I hope and pray that you are all well.

Due to the Coronavirus pandemic, our Metropolitan and the Governor of Rhode Island have prohibited gatherings of more than five people in churches for your safety.

Therefore, our services will be composed of the priest and essential helpers such as the chanter and altar server. Because we will not be able to be physically together, we will be facilitating your participation in these holy services through social media. To this end we are happy to announce that Assumption in Pawtucket now has live-streaming capabilities for your spiritual nourishment in the midst of this crisis. Below is the link to our new official YouTube channel that will be broadcasting all of our services live. We thank Nick Bitsakis and Michael Platsidakis for all their efforts to set up the required technology in time for Holy Week.

May God bless you all and keep you healthy and safe. Have a blessed Pascha.

Fr. Philip
